Intellectual Activities

Not busy on a Thursday afternoon? How about joining Don Cain and Valerie McDougall for a matinee movie? This past month featured On a Clear Day with Barbra Streisand, Shadowlands, Man on Fire with Denzel Washington, The Ten Commandments with Charlton Heston. And it's on the big screen in the main room. December movies will include: Hotel Rwanda and Young Winston.

Or join Steve Bertha and Brad Baskin at 10:00 a.m. on the fourth Monday of each month to watch a documentary such as last month's War of 1812 or this November's Bob Hope: A and E Biography. OR join them in the evening at 7:00 p.m. to watch films such as All The King's Men. For January, we have for Film Discussion night on January 23rd: Remains of the Day (1993).

Due to the holidays and Club closure, Documentaries and Film Discussion will not be meeting in December, but in January they will be showing films Remains of the Day and Live to 100: Secrets of the Blue Zone. How appropriate! It will reinforce the reason for having joined the University Club. Bring your own snacks or share with others. Thank you to all these and every other group leader.

Ed Korry, VP Intellectual Activities

Check-In Greeters Needed

We need a few more check-in greeters to help check in attendees at our Friday dinner and luncheon program events. No collections, just check in members and guests on the provided list and advise them of their seating assignments.

If interested, please contact Diana Secor at secor.diana@gmail.com.

Reminder

Club Closed Monday, December 23 through Friday, January 3.

NEW MEMBERS WANTED!

Applications for membership have slowed considerably. A constant flow of new member applications is vital since every year we lose members, who move away, grow older, or cannot take advantage of the Club's offerings.

We encourage members to reach out to friends or acquaintances who they think could be enjoy the Club's activities.

UCWP Car Decals Available in the Office!

Car decals are available in the Club office at no charge. By placing a decal in your passenger-side back window, members may park at the Club after hours without the concern of being towed.

- 10:00 a.m. HISTORY - American in Paris presented by Susan Rosoff, Curator of Education at the Orlando Museum of Art. Paris has always had a particular allure. It does it for us today and it did for the artists in the 19th century. In the decades following the Civil War, hundreds of Americans joined the throngs in Paris. American collectors bought European art and artists needed to compete, so they studied painting with French mentors and studied paintings at the Louvre to establish credibility. What was it about that era that it became the subject of Broadway shows, sold out museum exhibits and huge unequaled art sales? Our speaker Susan Rosoff will drop us into the world of the French 19th century with its horsedrawn carriages, bustle skirts, gas lights, and Impression Art. It's a fascinating time and a fascinating city. You don't want to miss Susan Rosoff and the world of Paris.
