Intellectual Activities

The Beginning Spanish class finally launched!!! Cheryl Malone, the instructor, did a marvelous job signing people up (including during the Open House we held), and by the time the class began she had 15 students. The class time that was finally decided on is every Thursday, 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., except of course for Club closures (holidays, etc.). A big thanks to Randy Ellington for supplying the new whiteboard that Cheryl needed.

If anyone has ideas for other classes/activities they would like to see at the Club, I would encourage them to let me know. If there are enough folks to make something happen, I'll do my best to help make it so. It's been very gratifying to me to see an idea become an actual activity. Send me your ideas and thoughts.

Thankfully Ed Korry has made it back from his vacation. In addition to conducting the Classic Book Club, he helps with the management of several other groups, and of course he put in an enormous amount of effort making the Open House happen. We are always grateful for his talent, his broad spectrum of knowledge and his enthusiasm.

Have a Happy Holiday Season,

Allen Moody, VP Intellectual Activities

10:00 a.m. HISTORY GROUP – “The Other 1948 Election” Lyndon Johnson’s Race for the U.S. Senate. Presented by Jim Hauser. In 1948, Harry Truman pulled off one of the greatest upsets in American political history when he defeated Thomas Dewey for the presidency. Lyndon B. Johnson achieved a similar feat by defeating Coke Stevenson – considered the most popular elected official in Texas history in the Democratic runoff for the U.S. Senate. The story is not whether LBJ stole the election, but rather the extraordinary drama of how he did it. The tale contains more twists and turns than a Shakespeare play or an Agatha Christie novel.
