

CLUB TIMES

Welcome to Intellectual Activities! (Especially for the newly-joined!)

We have quite a bit of collected wisdom in the Club, but several of the groups bring in outside speakers as well, particularly in the History and Mental Health & Well-being Groups. Some memorable recent History Group presentations included Philadelphia Constitutional Convention and Gangsters in Florida.

There are several language groups. We are working to establish a beginning Spanish Group for those genuinely new to the language. Our existing Spanish Groups assume some familiarity with Spanish.

We also have several Book Groups to suit your favorite genre: Classics, Fiction, Historical Fiction and Non-Fiction.

Our Current Events Group presents discussion on news of the day, while our Foreign Affairs Group presents topics involving international relations and regional studies.

If you like movies, try the Matinee Movies; or, if you like to travel (or have traveled recently, and have a tale to tell), try our Armchair Travel Group.

If you want a physical workout, try our Stretch & Balance, and Tai Chi activities (there is a small fee, payable to the instructor for the latter).

Games, We've got them! - Bridge (two of these), Scrabble, Chess, Mahjong, & Backgammon. We also offer a fun Trivia Group.

If there is something that you want that we don't offer, let me know and we'll try to get it for you!

Intellectual Activities

We have a new Intellectual Activity, a Beginning Spanish class starting Nov. 5th. The teacher is Cheryl Malone. This is a Beginning Spanish class, to emphasize that it will be for those with no prior or some familiarity with the language. Join in, it should be a fun educational experience.

I attended the University club Open House on October 10. The club's groups each got to do some recruiting for their specialties, and some of the visitors expressed interest in joining, so we hope to be expanding our membership rolls soon. We ended with enthusiastic (if a little chaotic) dancing. Ed Korry arranged it all (and provided food!), so thanks so much for arranging a great party, Ed!

I asked about learning Mahjong, and was told that basic instruction would be available in November, so I'll try to attend.

Gaye and I also attended Nancy Ponting's Armchair Travel group. Nancy's info about her trips to Spain has got Gaye interested in going there next year. This is an interesting and fun group, so if you have been on a great trip, and would like to share, please reach out to Nancy Ponting.

We will be re-open on Monday, Jan. 5th

NEW CLUB POLICY ATTENTION

To ensure the safety of all our members and guests, the University Club Executive Board has voted to prohibit anyone but on-duty law enforcement from carrying firearms on Club premises. We appreciate your compliance with this policy.

The October Block Party was a Success!

Thank you to all Intellectual Activities group leaders who were able to participate, and to members and office staff who also helped out in many different ways. Thank you to members who brought neighbors or guests to introduce them to the Club and to those who donated. We had 40 groups represented! Over a hundred folks participated and enjoyed the music of Mark Zauss. The event was so well received that one take away is to hold another similarly formatted event for members in the coming year. The results of the event was 8 applications filled out and a further 10 applications were taken by other guests.

HOLIDAY CHORUS

Mark your calendar! The Chorus will perform on Friday, Dec. 5th, at 2p.m.
